Statistics.-It appears from the detailed and Wm. Prescott Smith, esq., steresting report of master of transportation of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, that of 1,000,594 barghot flour brought to this city during the year ending September 30, over the Baltimore and One Railroad, 125,255 were reshipped to New York, 65.148 to Boston, 17,705 to Providence, and 162,509 to Philadelphia. The re-shipments of the past year were 157,644 bbls. more than for the previous year, and leave 633,977 bbls. for the Baltimore market, brought hither by the Railroad. Of the total quantity of flour brought over the road, 66,819 bbls. were brought from Wheeling, 309,793 from Benwood, 11,153 from Moundsville, 294.549 from Parkersburg, and 203.687 from way points.

The quantity of coal delivered by the road tuting the year was as follows: At Locust ont, 260,699 tons; in the city, 49,829 tons; at sev stations, 22,267 tons, for company's use $491 tons. The number of hogs brought to he city for the year was 188,656, against 159,-469 the previous year; and the aggregate number of animals was 248,363, against 221,076 the Mevious year .- Balt. Sun.

NEW YORK, November 15 .- There is nothing the money or stock market worthy of note. Ite breadstuff market is firm, and provisions me tending upward. Cotton is without change, but the receipts at all ports are heavier than in my former year. The exports are also rapidly acreasing, and it is stated as probable that Great Britain will get more cotton by 1st of lanuary than has been generally calculated upth. The clearances hence since 1st September tech about 175,000 bales, against 130,000 to the same time last year, and 86,000 in 1856 '57. The exports of domestic produce and miscelstrous goods during the week amounted to on-$$50.810, against $1,426,905 same week last ear Of this aggregate the value of the shipzents of cotton, flour, wheat, corn, cornmeal, bet, and pork was only $273,877, against $154.552 same week last season. The expor of specie was $142,316, against $697,649 same CONVICTION OF REV. DANIEL DOWNEY .-The argument in the case of the Rev. Daniel Downey was opened on Wednesday last, by W. S. H. Baylor, esq., for the prosecution; Messrs. Skinner, Bell, Baldwin, and Michie, spoke on the other side; and Col. Harman, for the Commonwealth, concluded the discussion at a late bour on Saturday afternoon. The jury retired for a short time, but being unable to agree the Court adjourned to Monday morning. At the opening of the Court on Monday, it was announced that the jury had agreed upon a verdict. The prisoner and the foreman rose to their feet, and the latter pronounced the verdict-Guilty of murder in the second degree. The term of imprisonment in the penitentiary was fixed at eight years. The prisoner received the appouncement with fortitude, a slightly increased pallor and a downcast expression of countenance being the only symptoms of emotion. Thus has ended a trial which has excited great interest in this community, and throughout the country .- Staunton Spect.

The Winchester Virginian urges the calling of an Extra Session of the Logislature, "to devise ways and means to relieve the people of some of the burdens now weighing them down." The Virginian says--"We hope Governor Wise will not besitate to convene the Legislature in extra session, if there be a hope of affording relief to any considerable portion of the people of the State. Matters cannot be made worse. In this section, a failure of three or four grain crops in succession, is believed to be the main cause of our pecuniary pressure. Certain it is, the people are sorely oppressed, and need relief of some

There was a discussion at Culpeper Court House, on Monday last, between Mr. Henry Shackelford and Hon. William Smith, candidates for Congress in this district. During the discussion Mr. Smith remarked, that i Mr. Shackelford had been a little more patient, and waited 'till Spring, the proper time, as Mr. Smith thought, for the Canvass, he might have entered the field without embarrassment, as he, Mr. S., might before that time, either die or receive another office. To this Mr. Shackelford replied that he did not feel the least embarrasement himself, that he, Mr. Smith, was the only embarrassed man be knew of .- Blue Ridge Rep.

Soots and F. L. Smith for plaintiffs, S. Chilton and Brent & Kinzer for defendants. The Court adpurned till this morning, at 9 o'clock.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL -- CANAL DAMS. - We learn that dam No. 4 has sue tained lejuries by the late rise in the river, and the work of completion will be necessarily retarded. It is now doubtful whether it will be finished this winter or not. Had it not been for the rise in the waters the work could have been completed at the present time. At dam No. 5 work has been suspended until next spring. All the hands were discharged last week. BUSINESS ON CANAL - During last week eighty-five boats left Cumberland for tidewater, carrying 9,670 tons of coal. The entire line of the canal is reported in the finest order, and boate are taking loads to their full capacity, some carrying as much as 125 to 130 tone. There is a good prospect of doing an excellent business for the remainder of the season, which will continue till the canal is closed with ice .- Cumb. Civ.

PROFESSOR MACLEOD was greeted at the Lyceum Hall, on Tuesday night last, on the occasion of his second appearance in our city, in his Recitations and Readings, by a highly appreciative audience, amongst whom we noticed some of the clergymen of this place. Some specimens of fine Ballad Poetry, delivered in a style of great force and beauty-preceded the introduction of one of Sheridan's inimitable satires, and the celebrated characters of Puff. Sneer, &c., were rendered in such a manner as to elicit the most enthusiastic applause. But as we have expressed our favorable opinion of the abilities of Prof. M. on a former occasion, we only allude to the subject now, in hopes of awakening a deeper interest in the minds and to present our thanks to Prof. M. for these occasions of intellectual enjoyment.

THE MANSION HOUSE -- The furniture and other personal property in the Mansion House, in this city, is to be sold at public auction, on the 6th of December. The hotel, a very large and commedious one, complete in all its parts, and widely known, is for rent from the 1st of January.

COLD WEATHER .-- The "cold spap," has been extensively felt-especially at the North, where spow and ice, at this time, abound. Here, considerable ice is formed Black Silk Bombazines and Alpaccas during the cold nights.

The purchase of the house and lot adjoining the new Costom House, has been confirmed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the building is to be sold on Saturday, to be at Red and White Flannels, (very cheap) once removed.

AGROUND .- The steamer Arctic, bound from Washington to Pensacola, ran aground at the mouth of the Eastern Branch, yesterday, at 124 o'clock.

APPOINTMENT .-- Arthur J. Arnold, son of Mr. John Arnold, of this city, has been appointed a State student in the University of Virginia, from this Senatorial District. Georgetown, D. C., unites with Washington and the several States, in a day of publie Thanksgiving.

THE LAW OF PARTY WALLS .- The case of Wilson vs. Lieberman, which has occupied the Circuit Court for a week, was brought to a close vesterday, so far as the plaintiff has claimed against the defendant, leaving yet to be tried an action brought by the defendant against the plaintiff, growing out of the same matter. The case tried has resulted, as to the law, in the Court's having restricted the plaintiff, Wilson, to damages for the alleged trespass in occupying, for several days before the bringing of the suit, so much of the ground as was not covered by the old nine-inch wall. The points of law interesting to the public in this city arefirst, that a man may enjoy the comforts of his own hearth, when he has done so for more than twenty years, without fear of an action for damages founded upon an accurate survey, made by his neighbors; and, secondly, that when a nine inch party wall be moderate. N. NALLEY, Nanjemoy P.O. is torn down it cannot be rebuilt a fourteeninch wall, whatever the building regulations may be supposed to say to the contrary; the first builder being the person who exercises the power under these regulations. Before Judge Brewer's court at Rockville, Md , the case of the Great Falls Co.'s water privilege is now pending. On the part of the United States, a motion has been made to set aside the verdict of the jury on account of alleged excess of damages.
